PLACES TO VISIT

Utrecht is one of the beating hearts of the Netherlands, a city with an unparalleled vitality.

A medieval city center small enough to explore on foot, yet still large enough to enjoy world class festivals, modern architecture, trendy shops and interesting museums for days on end.

Utrecht has a wealth of culture and history and bustles with life, notably of 65,000 students. What else? An extensive number of cultural events. Friendly outdoor cafés and restaurants. Hospitable hotels... Utrecht has it all.

The Dom tower and cathedral are perhaps the most famous attractions of the city, but it has much more interesting churches and monuments that have to be seen:

Sint Willibrord Church

Paushuize is the second oldest building in the historical heart of Utrecht. This palace was originally built for the only and one Dutch pope the Netherlands has ever known, Pope Adrian VI.
